Discover the Diverse Range of Career Possibilities the World of Business Offers

In today's dynamic challenging world, it is often difficult for students to navigate through the complexities of career planning. What career options do I have? What skills do I need to succeed in the marketplace? How do I determine what career is right for me?

The conference will assist students in their search for the right career choice.

The day-long event will enable students to discover the importance of:

- Leadership
- Teamwork
- Networking
- Professionalism
- Business Etiquette
- Career/Life Balance

Who

This is a great opportunity for the top high school students from the Waterloo-Wellington area to explore careers in business.

What

This exciting career conference is for senior students to directly connect with decision makers – leaders in the world of business. Students will benefit from the high-energy, interactive workshops and seminars. They can look forward to an inspiring and rewarding experience.

When

Wednesday, May 4, 2011, 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Where

St. George Hall, 665 King Street North, Waterloo
