Barbara Stymiest

The Executive Council of the Canadian Bankers Association (CBA) and Nancy Hughes Anthony, CBA President and CEO, are pleased to announce the appointment of Barbara Stymiest as Chair of the Executive Council of the CBA.

Ms. Stymiest is Group Head, Strategy, Treasury and Corporate Services of RBC. She is responsible for directing corporate functions including enterprise strategy, corporate development, corporate treasury, law, compliance, brand and communications, government relations and internal audit. Ms. Stymiest is also one of nine members of RBC's Group Executive, which is responsible for the strategic direction of RBC. Prior to joining the bank, she was CEO of the TSX Group.

Ms. Stymiest sits on a number of corporate boards and is involved with a variety of professional and charitable organizations. She holds a degree in Business Administration from the Richard Ivey School of Business and is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Ontario.

The Canadian Bankers Association works on behalf of 50 domestic banks, foreign bank subsidiaries and foreign bank branches operating in Canada and their 263,400 employees. The CBA advocates for effective public policies that contribute to a sound, successful banking system that benefits Canadians and Canada's economy. The Association also promotes financial literacy to help Canadians make informed financial decisions.
